

It looks like society is going to keep up the buoyancy of the last month, as the week just ended has been a very jolly one. In the absence of an over-supply of home entertainments there have been box parties at the theatres and at least one hall to make up a week of gaiety for the fashionable. The rather high-class performances now holding the boards at the local theatres are to be thought of bringing society together rather than would otherwise be the case. Mrs. Lane was the guest of honor at two small events, Mrs. Nelson's card party and that of Mrs. Marshall. Mrs. Miller's entertainment and the Unity hall ladies' reception were among the more elaborate and informal gatherings. A pretty wedding was also a feature of the week, that of Miss Myrtle Strong, of South Bend, Ind., and Mr. John C. Shipp, of this city.

The "Parches" at Popperton was again thrown open to society last week and a most enjoyable entertainment was afforded. The gathering was complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Dean H. Lyman, of New Haven, Conn. Mr. Wallace entertained delightfully, honor of her two guests. Elaborate decorations in autumn leaves and chrysanthemums adorned the well-appointed rooms, and sweet music added to the pleasure of the guests. Sumptuous refreshments were served in the dining-room and the occasion was enjoyed by over two hundred guests.

Mrs. W. A. Nelson's high five party on Thursday was an unusually pretty one and a small party of guests were bidden to the pleasant affair. All the rooms were decorated neatly and in harmony, and a most agreeable afternoon was spent by the guests. The event was given in honor of Mrs. Lane. The guests of the occasion were: Mrs. Mackintosh, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Egbert Roberts, Mrs. George F. Downey, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Post, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. Zane, Mrs. Noyes, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Wither, Miss Mackintosh, Miss Webster, Miss Ethelyn Webster.

Mrs. George M. Downey was the hostess of a small social event on Friday, at which card playing was the attraction. The apartments were delightfully decorated and the guests were entertained in the elegant way for which the hostess is well known. The affair was informal and the guests did not fail to while away the afternoon very pleasantly.

The Misses Howat gave a card party to a few friends on Friday night at their residence on Eighth East street. Tompkins refreshments were served and the evening was a most enjoyable one.

Mrs. Lane was again honored at a card party on Friday evening when Mrs. Thomas Marshall invited a few friends to meet her at her pretty residence. Among the guests entertained by the hostess were: Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Mackintosh, Mrs. George M. Downey, Mrs. Daggett, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. George F. Downey, Mrs. Almy, Mrs. Wither, Mrs. Wilkes, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Zane, Mrs. Wilkes, A. Lowe, Mrs. Faber.

Miss Saugher, of Grand Rapids, is the guest of Mrs. Penrose at the Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean B. Lyman, of New Haven, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George J. Wallace for a few days.

Miss Miner, of the Park, is spending a few days in the city as the guest of Miss Jean Groo.

Miss Ruth Lewis Kerr, who has gained many friends in Salt Lake during her stay, returns tonight to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Lane will return to Washington, D. C. some time during the week.

Mrs. S. B. Miller gave one of the largest social entertainments of the week on Thursday, in compliment to Miss Lamson, her cousin. The decorations were profuse and artistic and all else in the entertainment was in harmony. Cosmopolitan and nautical made a most pleasing effect as the table settings. Among the guests entertained by Mrs. Miller were: Mrs. Kenyon, Mrs. Archer, Mrs. J. T. Donnellan, Mrs. Pottinger, Mrs. L. H. Farnsworth, Mrs. Hull, Mrs. S. T. Pearson, Mrs. A. E. Butler, Mrs. De Golyer, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Hinek, Mrs. Peyton, Mrs. Simons, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Knox, Mrs. Harley Miller, Mrs. Judson.

In one of the boxes at the Grand last week were Mr. and Mrs. George T. Wallace, Mrs. Herreck, Miss Kerr and Miss Woodward.

Mrs. J. S. Kinkaid is visiting friends for a few days in the east.

A dinner was given at the post on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Palmer in honor of Miss Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank left Tuesday night on a visit to the east.

The young ladies of the Unitarian society are preparing to give a "Ladies' Minster" performance on December 14 and 15 in the Salt Lake theatre. Several of Salt Lake's best known so-

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

The music furnished at the Lyceum by the orchestra under Mr. Zehtner, is the subject of much favorable comment.

Following is the programme for the open air concert at Fort Douglas at 1 p. m. today:

"Star Spangled Banner," Overture, "The Maiden and Her Spin-dle," "Les Sirenes," "Waltz," "Hungarian Fantasia," "Tobani Religious," "Sanctus" from Mass in G., Mozart "To God on High" from "Paulus," "Patrol," "Cosy's Industrial Army," "Orth" "Hail Columbia."

The German Singing society, "Lieder-kranz" have secured Mr. Carl Zehtner, a thorough musician of German education, as their future director, and intend to give monthly entertainments at the Lyceum hall. With such talent at the head the future prospect is certainly promising to say the least. Success to them.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.
